REVIVE AND TRIVE

FAMILY SCOUTING

- BSA's mission is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the scout oath and law. Our priority is to bring the benefits of scouting to more youth while remaining true to our mission. Our cub scouts and Scouts BSA programs are open to boys and girls. By welcoming both girls and boys into the program, even more youth will have access to the character development and values-based leadership that scouting promises and be better prepared for future success.

The cornerstones to revive and thrive for Central Minnesota Council scouting are as follows:

- Energized assertive leaders seeking and inspiring families to join their units
- Growing Scouts BSA troops in number and size

EVERY YOUTH DESERVES TRAINED ADULT LEADERS

BE INVITING TO ADULTS

RECRUITING MORE ADULTS

Every unit could use more adult leaders. Here are some best practices for achieving this. There are also some things to avoid.

BEST PRACTICES

- Identify areas where you need help: Blue & Gold Banquet, Cross-Over, Court Of Honors, Camp-outs, Pinewood Derby, Community Service projects, etc. Not all helpers need to be registered volunteers.
- Identify areas which need a registered leader - for now or for the future. Do you need members of the committee, Den Leaders, or a Cubmaster/Scoutmaster?
- Identify parents with interest, talents, and experience for these needs.
- Meet with them in person, invite them to be an adult leader, and provide them with an outline of what is expected. Provide them with info for training and support available.
- ASK! This may seem like a no-brainer, but if you don't ask someone to step up and help, they aren't usually going to volunteer.
- Make targeted asks. For example, if Jill is the best candidate for Cubmaster/Scoutmaster, have the current Cubmaster/Scoutmaster and another volunteer go ask Jill personally. This shows the importance of the role and lets Jill know that she is the best candidate for this position

WHICH POSITIONS DO YOU PLAN TO FILL?

LIST OF PARENTS WHO SHOULD BE INVITED TO BE LEADERS IN YOUR UNIT:

AVOID THESE RECRUITING TACTICS

- Don't make a general announcement at a meeting that the Pack/Troop needs help and, if interested, contact the Cubmaster/Scoutmaster. For instance, "So I'm stepping down as Cubmaster and we really need a replacement. If anyone is interested, please come talk to me after the meeting."
- Don't place an ad on your website, Facebook page, or newsletter asking for help. You want the best candidate possible for the position in your Pack. Placing an ad opens these positions of importance to anyone, which then diminishes the perceived importance and value.

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL PROGRAM

The BSA Adopt-A-School® program is an exciting and comprehensive undertaking that will connect Scout Packs/Troops across the country with schools in their communities. Participating Scout Units then work, within clearly defined guidelines, to partner with school administrations and offer the volunteer services that most effectively meet their school's needs.

With each unit offering their school a minimum one-year commitment, meaningful community relationships are built, and significant changes will happen in the schools. Units may use their service hours to count toward Journey To Excellence progress.

This program will provide a lasting bond between individual Scouts and their immediate community, between Scouting and the community, and among the Scouts themselves. When Scouts provide service to a school, they feel connected, they're able to bond Scout pride with school pride, thereby strengthening the commitment to both.

This project establishes loyalty by building upon itself. At the end of the first year, when the Scouts have completed the four required projects, they gain a true sense of membership and accomplishment, which always enhances retention.

Although our priority remains to let your school's specific needs determine how you serve, here are a few potential project ideas to get you started:

- Grounds Beautification
- Building Improvements
- Giving Tree Coordination
- Teacher Appreciation
- Helpers During Festivals
- Book Drive Coordination
- Cleaning Up After Events
- Green Effort Coordination
- Literacy Program
- Food Drive Coordination

NOTES, TIPS, AND IDEAS

BE VISIBLE TO ALL

- One of the most common questions people ask is “Where is Scouting today?”. The key to showcasing Scouting, gaining support, and growing excitement about being a Scout is to be as visible as possible.

SIGN-UP NIGHT FOR SCOUTING

- The sign-up process should be quick. Parents who bring their kids to sign up have already made up their minds to do so!
- Be prepared for the possibility of setting up your Sign-up Night for Scouting booth outdoors, in case school doors are locked.
- You only need enough volunteers to answer individual questions without making others wait.
 - More information with regards to activities, camping, etc. will be done at the New Parent Orientation Meeting.
- After Sign-up Night for Scouting, review youth applications for adult information that you can use to determine possible leaders when you orientate new parents at their first meeting.
- Keep copy of the attendance roster. Follow up with all unregistered youth, and all youth who expressed interest in Scouting.

“BRING A FRIEND/INVITE YOUR CLASSMATES” ACTIVITIES

- Which activities should your Scouts invite their friends/classmates to? All of them! What a great way for other youth to get a firsthand look at Scouting. This could be a hike or simple cookout with games.
- Set up a few activities from the different Scout handbooks and have all youth participate. Registered Scouts will get credit in their handbook and mention to the other youth that, if they were a Scout, they would also be earning badges during the activities.

WHAT ACTIVITIES COULD WE DO TO INVITE OTHER FAMILIES TO SCOUTING?

BEASCOUT.ORG WEBSITE

- Utilize online registration. Make sure unit leader contact information is up to date. A great resource for recruitment and camp information, promotional materials, and unit meeting ideas.

SCOUTBOOK

Units are required to utilize this “FREE” AMAZING BSA TOOL.

Scoutbook is the BSA’s free online unit management tool and helps Scouts, parents and leaders track advancement and milestone achievements along the Scouting trail.

New Scoutbook features will make it easier to prepare for den meetings and ensure consistent program delivery. Scoutbook is streamlining content and advancement processes for den leaders, so they can focus on making Scouting come to life for Scouts.
